One Thing Nehemiah Part 1

Group Discussion Questions

Read Nehemiah 1:1-3. In these verses, God puts something in front of Nehemiah He wants him to engage. This week we talked about “one thing” God might be calling you to change, start, fix, break, engage, restore... What is your “one thing” in this season of life? If you don’t have one, ask your community to help you brainstorm.

Read verses 4-11. A lot of the time God uses sorrow, hurt, pain, or our response to injustice to call us into things. How has God used these kinds of emotions to call you into something?

What do you notice about Nehemiah’s prayer? What does prayer look like for you as you move toward your “one thing.”

Nehemiah 2:1-9 is about Nehemiah taking a chance, stepping out in faith, and having a hard conversation. What risk(s) and sacrifice(s) will your “one thing” require?

Read Nehemiah 2:11-17. In these verses, we see Nehemiah fully step into this challenge. How might you be tempted to only take “half measures” to accomplish your “one thing?” What does full commitment look like?

What else from this message or scripture challenged you, frightened you, frustrated you, made you wonder, fired you up, or gave you hope?
